Chapter 3 THE BEGINNINGS OF GOVERNMENT IN THE UNITED STATES

The roots of American government reach deep into the past. Our system of government did not suddenly spring into being as at the wave of some political magician's wand. Nor was it pulled out of thin air by the

Our English Heritage. The French, Spanish, Dutch, Norwegian, and other Europeans settled in parts of what was to become the United States. But it was the English who came in the largest numbers. And it was the English who came to control the thirteen colonies that stretched for 1,300 miles along the Atlantic seaboard.

that each man has certain rights that government cannot injure or take away. These great principles of freedom were proclaimed in such historic English documents as the Magna Carta in 1215, the Petition of Right in 1628, and the Bill of Rights and the Act of Toleration of 1689.

(2) The Concept of Representative Government. A third vitally important concept brought to America in English ships was that of representative government. For centuries there had been developing in England the

Dayle.

Clint,
you replaced two of my friends in a way. Mrs. Bryant was here last year, Mrs. Beck the year before, but I like you now, possibly a little more. Keep up the good work and hard looking assignments. And as you know who said you are a nice "old lady."

Don't Student,
Randy Spiller
Senior 67-68

Dear Mrs. Clinton,
 I think you are a very nice person. And it is always fun to be in your class.
 Best of luck always
 Mike Barber

Dear Mrs. Clinton
 You are a wonderful person and I like you for a teacher because the kind of person that you are is likeable and easy to get along with.
 I hope to see you next year because you are sweet.
 Best wishes
 Love
 Sam

Dear Mrs. Clinton,
 I think you are a very nice person. And it is always fun to be in your class. I might pass about typing but I really like it. Best of luck in the future.
 Always,
 David

Dear Mrs. Clinton
 You are a very nice person and I enjoyed being in your typing class. I might give about your class, but I am just joking about quitting stay a nice teacher.
 Always David

Dear Mrs. Clinton
 You are one of my best teachers. I have learn a lot in typing. Thank you for letting me write in your yearbook.
 Mary Cirkle

—Mrs. Clinton—
 I guess you are one of the nicest teachers I've got. But you do give me too much for work to do in typing. I couldn't type if my life depended on it. Maybe I'll see you again next year but I sure hope not. If I get out of school this year I'll probably be in the Air Force by the time school starts back again. Be good when I'm gone and don't give them good kids so much more.
 Your warm student,
 Harry L.
 Senior 1967-68

To My Dear Bookkeeping Teacher,
You're pretty good for a teacher.
Sometimes I think that you are grumpy but you really not, it's just that I am lazy. I enjoy school a lot but having you as a teacher makes school just that much better. You understand the kind of troubles that students have, this is something that not many teachers do. I am looking forward to going to school under you next year.
Your friendly student
Kenneth

-Mother-
I love
you very much,
Mike
